Changing the Agreement
When and how we make changes	Fees We may change the fees payable under this Agreement (including introducing new fees or when or how we calculate or apply fees) for one of the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to respond proportionately to actual or expected changes to our costs of providing the Account; • if we change the services and benefits included with your Account; • because we reasonably think that your credit risk profile has changed meaning that there is an increased risk that you might not be able to make payments due on your Account; • to maintain an appropriate return from your Account and to ensure that our business maintains a broadly similar level of profitability and competitiveness; • to ensure the fees payable continue to reflect the fair value of the Account which may include aligning our charging arrangements; or • for any other valid reason as long as you are able to end the Agreement without charge. Account services We may change the Account services we provide to you or the way we deliver them if we reasonably consider this would not be to your disadvantage and there is no increased cost to you. Benefits offered with your Account

We may change the benefits offered with your Account (including removing a benefit, substituting new benefits, changing the benefit provider or altering the costs associated with them) provided we reasonably believe the overall benefits associated with your Account represent good value and are competitively priced or for a reason stated under 'All other terms of your Agreement' below.

All other terms of your Agreement

We may change any terms not referred to above for any of these reasons:

- we reasonably consider the change would make the terms easier to understand, fairer to you, or you would not be disadvantaged by it;
- to make reasonable changes to the way we look after your Account as a result of changes in the banking or financial system, technology, or the systems we use;
- as a result of actual or anticipated legal or regulatory requirements;
- to ensure that our business is run prudently; or
- for any other valid reason as long as you are able to end the Agreement without charge.

Notification of changes

We will give you at least two months' advance personal notice of all changes to your Agreement referred to in this section unless the change is not to your disadvantage. In this case, we will give you personal notice but we may make the change more quickly.

If you do not want to continue the Agreement with the change, you can end this Agreement (see 'Ending your Agreement'), otherwise, you will be deemed to have accepted the changes unless you notify us prior to the date on which the changes will take effect that you do not accept the changes. If we don't hear from you, all changes will take effect as notified for as long as the Agreement remains in existence.

Upgrading and downgrading your Account

You may notify us at any time that you no longer wish to maintain your Card Benefits and would like us to issue you with a Basic Card.

We may make a combination of changes to this Agreement to change the type of Card we issue you with. This may happen if you request a different type of Card, if our assessment of your circumstances means that we believe that you no longer qualify for your current Card or that you now qualify for a different Card.

We will always give you notice of the changes as set out above unless you have told us that you would like to move to a different Card and we choose to provide you with a new Card more quickly.

If you move to a different type of Card, we will adjust the Cardmembership Fee and Supplementary Cardmembership Fee on a pro-rata basis as appropriate to reflect the difference between the fees payable on the old Card and the new Card, adjusting your Account as appropriate.

Some other things you need to know

Business customers only

If you apply for a business Card, we will check the following records about you and your business partners:

- our own records;

- records at fraud prevention agencies; and
- for directors, credit reference agencies will check that the residential address provided matches the restricted register of directors' usual addresses at Companies House.

When credit reference agencies receive a search from us they will create a record of the name and address of your business and its proprietors if there is not one already.

For the American Express Business Card the Business is jointly and severally liable with you to pay to us

	when due all charges on the Account made by you and any Supplementary Cardmember. This means that we can demand payment of the entire balance owing on an American Express Business Card from you or the Business. Each Supplementary Cardmember is also jointly and severally liable with you and the Business to pay us when due all charges on the Account made by the Supplementary Cardmember. Cardmember Agreement: Part 2 of 2

How Your American Express Account Works

Introduction

About your Cardmember Agreement

This Agreement is made up of Parts 1 and 2 (Agreement).

You can request a further copy of this Agreement free of charge at any time during the term of the Agreement.

Words we use in the Agreement

We, us, and our mean the issuer shown in Part 1. You and your mean the person who applied for this Account and for whom we opened the Account and with respect to an American Express Business Card, includes the Business. Business means the company, partnership, sole trader, trust or other entity or person whose name appears on an American Express Business Card.

You are the Cardmember. You may request a Card for a Supplementary Cardmember (see 'About Supplementary Cardmembers'). Reference to you and your includes, where relevant, reference to Supplementary Cardmembers, but Supplementary Cardmembers do not have any direct contractual obligations to us under this Agreement except in respect of Supplementary Cardmembers on American Express Business Cards – see 'Business customers only' section in Part 1.

Account means any account we maintain in relation to Cards and to which we charge Transactions. Card means any Card or other device that we issue to access your Account. Card Benefits means additional services and benefits provided in connection with a Card other than a Basic Card, including the relevant Card design (for example, the American Express Gold Card design). A Transaction is any amount added to your Account, such as purchases or fees. A purchase is a transaction using your Card to acquire goods or services. To pay by a certain date means to send your payment so that we receive it and credit it to your Account by that date (see 'About your payments').

About using your Card

Using your Card

You may use your Card, subject to any restrictions set out in this Agreement, to pay for goods and services from merchants who accept the Card.

If permitted by the merchant, you may return to the merchant goods or services obtained using your Card and receive a credit to your Account.

You may not use your Account for illegal activities or in a manner which disguises the true nature of the Transaction, for example, by obtaining cash through a Transaction which you know will be treated as a purchase of goods and services, or by using your Card at a merchant you own or control.

We may issue you with Cards to replace your existing Cards (including different types of Cards). Cards will have an expiry date and you must destroy expired Cards in a way that means they cannot be used (e.g. by cutting them into pieces).

If your Card is cancelled or suspended for any reason, all other Cards issued on your Account may be cancelled or suspended at the same time.

Promise to pay

Subject to the 'Theft, Loss or Misuse of the Card or Account and errors' section of the Agreement, you promise to pay all Transactions, including:

- Transactions you authorise, even if you do not present your Card or sign for the Transaction;
- Transactions that other people authorise if you let them use your Account; and
- Transactions that Supplementary Cardmembers authorise or permit others to authorise.

Authorising and declining Transactions

You authorise a Transaction when you request a Transaction using your Account by presenting or providing a Card, the Card details or Account details and, if required for the Transaction, entering any Card PIN, password, personal identifiers or following any other set of procedures.

Transactions can be authorised in this way for a single Transaction taking place at the time of authorisation, for a payment to be made at a future date, or for a series of Transactions occurring in the future. Depending upon the terms with the merchant, by authorising Transactions in this way, you may also authorise the merchant to take a Card payment at future times if the original payment failed.

If you did not authorise the Transaction at the time, you can later confirm your authorisation for it.

You can only cancel future dated Transactions, or Transactions that are part of a series, if you cancel them by the end of the working day before they are due to be processed.

We may decline to authorise a Transaction on reasonable grounds. Reasons we may do this include suspected unauthorised or improper use, fraud, technical difficulties, legal requirements, our assessment of your creditworthiness, if the use of the Card would be prohibited or because certain types of Transactions are not available (including if the Transaction would exceed a Transaction limit of some sort). This may occur even if your Account is not in default. If we do, you will normally be told at the point of sale, but you may not be. In all cases, you can find out about Transactions we have refused or any other restrictions imposed on your Card by checking our website (americanexpress.co.uk) or by calling us on the telephone number on the back of your Card.

We are not responsible for any losses you incur if we do not authorise a Transaction and we are not responsible if any merchant refuses to accept the Card.

Theft, Loss or Misuse of the Card or Account and errors

Keep your Card safe and don't let anyone else use it. This means you must:

- sign the Card (if applicable) and keep the Card in your possession and secure (including using device passcodes where applicable);
- not let others use your Card and regularly check you still have the Card;
- not give your Card, Account details, PIN or other passwords to anyone else other than when you are authorising a Transaction and do not let others see them when you use them;
- choose a PIN or password that is not easy to guess.

You must tell us immediately by calling us on the telephone number on the back of your Card if you suspect:

- a Card has been lost or stolen or not received;
- someone else knows a Card PIN or other security code; or
- your Account or Card is being misused or used without your authorisation, or a Transaction on your Account has not been authorised or has been processed incorrectly.

Once you have told us about any of the above, we will cancel the Card and a replacement Card will be issued.

You will not be responsible for any unauthorised Transactions incurred before you receive the Card which was used.

Your maximum liability for an unauthorised Transaction is £50 unless you or a Supplementary Cardmember:

- allowed someone else to use your Card or Account;
- failed to keep your Card, Account details, PIN or other passwords safe; or
- with intent or gross negligence, failed to comply with these terms and conditions in which case you may be responsible for all unauthorised Transactions which occur before you tell us you suspect your Account is being misused. If you act dishonestly, you will be responsible for all Transactions.

If you contact us to dispute a Transaction promptly (and no later than 13 months from the date of the Transaction) we will immediately refund or suspend the Transaction, including any applicable charges. We may ask you to confirm in writing that you did not authorise the Transaction. If we later discover that you were not entitled to a refund, we will reapply the Transaction and any applicable charges.

However, if we have a good reason to think that you have acted dishonestly or have acted deliberately or been grossly negligent in failing to keep your Card, Account details, PIN or other passwords safe, we will initiate an inquiry before providing a refund and we may suspend the Transaction. We will complete our investigations as soon as possible and once they are complete we will, if necessary, adjust your Account accordingly.

If there are errors in a Transaction and this is our fault, we will reverse the Transaction and restore your Account. We may then resubmit the correct Transaction.

Transactions for unexpected amounts

If you make a Transaction at a merchant within the European Economic Area and, at the time that you authorised it, you did not know the amount of the Transaction, you can request a refund from us if the amount charged is more than you reasonably expected.

You must request the refund within 8 weeks from the date of the statement on which the Transaction appears.

You will need to provide us with all the information we reasonably ask for and we may provide this information to third parties investigating your claim. We will conclude our investigations within 10 business days of us receiving all required information and either make the refund (normally adjusting your Account) or tell you why we have refused your claim.

About your payments

How to make payments Payments must be made in Pounds Sterling and can be made by any method set out on your statement or any method we otherwise tell you (following the instructions we give you).

You must make a separate payment for each Account you hold with us. If you send payments together and do not clearly designate the Account to be paid, we may apply payments to any Account.

We will credit payments to your Account as of the day we receive the funds, as long as we receive them within our business hours that day. If we receive it after that time, we will credit the payment as of the day after we receive it.

If your payment does not meet the instructions we give you, there may be a delay in crediting your Account. This may result in Late Payment Fees being applied (see 'Fees'). We may charge your Account for any reasonable costs we incur.

Any time periods for making your payment to us that we may provide are estimates only and are dependent on the payment system and service provider you use to make payment. You must allow sufficient time for us to receive funds by the Payment Due Date. Third parties who send us or process your payment on your behalf are not our agents and their receipt of a payment will not be treated as the time we receive your payment.

If we decide to accept a payment made in a foreign currency, we will choose a rate to convert your payment into Pounds Sterling, unless the law requires us to use a particular rate. We may impose additional charges for converting payments including any currency conversion cost incurred by us.

If we process a late payment, a partial payment or a payment marked with any restrictive language (such as in full and final settlement), that will have no effect on our rights (e.g. to recover the full balance owing) and will not change this Agreement.

Although we may credit your Account with a payment, we reserve the right to reverse the payment if it is returned or dishonoured for any reason.

How we apply payments and credits

We will normally apply payments to your Account in the following order:

- applicable Cardmembership Fees and Supplementary Cardmembership Fees;
- service charges (for example, Statement Copy Fees);
- Late Payment Fees;
- other fees charged by us that appear as a separate item on your monthly statement, for example, Returned Payment Fees;
- collection charges;
- charges, such as Transactions, that have appeared on a monthly statement; and
- charges, such as Transactions, that have not yet appeared on your monthly statement.

Other important information

About Supplementary Cardmembers

At your request, we may issue Cards to Supplementary Cardmembers. They do not have accounts with us but they can use your Account subject to the terms of this Agreement.

Supplementary Cardmembers on American Express Business Cards are jointly and severally liable with you and the Business to pay to us when due all charges on the Account made by the Supplementary Cardmember - see 'Business customers only' section in Part 1.

We may limit the number of Supplementary Cardmembers allowed on your Account.

You are responsible for all use of your Account by Supplementary Cardmembers and anyone they allow to use your Account.

You are responsible for ensuring that Supplementary Cardmembers comply with this Agreement, particularly as it deals with using or dealing with a Card or authorising Transactions.

If you have an American Express Business Card any Supplementary Cardmember must be a co-owner, partner, director, committee member or an employee of the business.

If you want to cancel a Supplementary Cardmember's right to use your Account (and cancel their Card) you must tell us and the Supplementary Cardmember's ability to make Transactions will immediately end.

Converting Transactions made in a foreign currency

If you make a Transaction in a foreign currency, it will be converted into Pounds Sterling on the date it is processed (which may be different to the date of the Transaction).

If the Transaction is in U.S. Dollars, it will be converted directly into Pounds Sterling. In all other cases, it will first be converted into U.S. Dollars and then into Pounds Sterling. However, only one Non-Sterling Transaction Fee will be payable.

Unless a particular rate is required by law, conversion rates will be used which are based on interbank rates selected from customary industry sources on the business day prior to the processing date (called the 'American Express Exchange Rate'). This rate may differ from rates that are in effect on the date of your Transaction. Fluctuations can be significant.

If Transaction amounts are converted by third parties prior to being submitted to us, any conversions made by those third parties will be at rates and may include a commission selected by them.

The American Express Exchange Rate is set daily. Changes in the rate will be applied immediately and without notice to you. The rate is found on our website (americanexpress.co.uk) or you may contact us by telephone or email to obtain the rate.

Ending your Agreement

This Agreement is open ended and has no fixed duration. It will continue until you or we close the Account in accordance with this Agreement.

You may end this Agreement at any time by calling us or writing to us with 30 days' notice.

We may end this Agreement immediately if you are in default (see 'About Default').

We may also end this Agreement by giving you at least two months' written notice without any explanation being required. We will always follow any legal requirements to provide you with notice before we end the Agreement.

The Agreement will only come to an end once you have paid off all amounts you owe us. Until this time, all of the terms of the Agreement will continue to apply (including our right to change the terms of the Agreement), but you will have no rights under it to use the Account to make Transactions and you will not be entitled to any benefits that are included with it.

When either of us end the Agreement you must:

- on demand pay off all amounts owing on your Account, including those not yet billed;
- destroy all Cards and stop using your Account; and
- inform merchants not to seek to take any further Transactions from your Account.

Any periodic Cardmembership Fee and Supplementary Cardmembership Fee paid in advance in respect of the remaining part of the period in which your Account is closed will be reimbursed pro-rata taking into consideration the length of time until the end of the current period.

Cancelling or suspending your Account

We may:

- immediately cancel or suspend your Account (i.e. permanently or temporarily stop you and/or a Supplementary Cardmember from using your Card or Account to make any Transactions and prevent you from accessing any services offered under this Agreement);
- cancel or suspend any feature on your Account; or
- withdraw or not reissue any Card.

If we do any of these, you must still pay us for all Transactions under the terms of this Agreement. We may also notify merchants that your Account has been cancelled or suspended.

We may do any of these things for security reasons, in the event you default, if we suspect unauthorised, improper and/or fraudulent use, or because there is a significantly increased risk that you will not be able to make payments due on your Account on time (for example, if you die or are made bankrupt). We will normally notify you beforehand or immediately afterwards and may provide you with the reasons.

If your Account is cancelled or suspended, you must not use your Cards and, if cancelled, must destroy them.

We may agree to reinstate your Account after we have stopped you from using it if the reasons we restricted your Account in the first place are no longer present. You can tell us this is the case and request reinstatement via our website (americanexpress.co.uk) or by calling us on the telephone number on the back of your Card. If we do this, we may:

- reinstate any Cards issued on your Account; and
- charge you any applicable Cardmembership Fees and Supplementary Cardmembership Fees.

About default

We may consider your Account to be in default if:

- you seriously or persistently fail to comply with this Agreement;

- you provide false or misleading information;
 - steps are taken to make you bankrupt or to make you the subject of any form of debt relief process;
 - you default under another agreement you have with us or an affiliate;
 - you become incapacitated or die; or
 - we have reasonable grounds to believe you are unable or unwilling to pay your debts when due.

Please note that we consider it to be a serious breach if you fail to make a payment in full on time.

Missing payments could mean you have to pay additional charges or costs, your credit rating may be affected making obtaining credit more difficult or expensive, legal action may be taken against you, an application may be made to make you bankrupt, or, if we obtain a charging order, we may obtain an order for sale which could lead to your home being repossessed.

Sending you statements, notices and other communications

We will provide you with or make available to you statements relating to your Account at least once a month if there has been any Account activity.

In addition to payment information, each statement will show all Transactions made using Cards in the statement period, the outstanding balance, the payment due, the Payment Due Date and any American Express Exchange Rate used in the conversion of a foreign currency Transaction and the Non-Sterling Transaction Fee.

Statements might also contain important information about the Card or associated services and benefits (for example, preferred seating or promotional offers available to you as an American Express Cardmember). If you are registered for our online account centre, this information might also be displayed on web pages associated with your online services.

You must always check each statement for accuracy and contact us as soon as possible if you need more information about a Transaction on any statement or if you think that any Transactions were not authorised by you.

We reserve the right to make some Account data available to you on request once a month. If we do, we will notify you in your statement.

If you enrol in online statements or you agree in another way to receive electronic notices from us, you agree that we will send you statements and other notices to the last email address you provided to us, by posting them to your secure website address or by making them available to you in any other lawfully permitted manner.

If you have not enrolled for online statements (and sometimes even if you have) we will send you statements and notices through the U.K. post addressed to you at the latest billing address on our records.

We may stop sending you paper statements, so make sure you regularly check this information and any mail we send to you electronically in the same way you would written mail.

We may send you alerts, important messages and other communications about your Account by email, by SMS or by posting them securely on our website.

'Notices' referred to above includes all notices or information we are required or choose to send you, including about changes to the Agreement. We may send you notices on or together with your statements.

Changing your contact details

You must notify us immediately through our website or by calling us on the telephone number on the back of your Card if you change your name, telephone number, your main residential address and/or country of residence or the mailing address or email address to which we send statements or notices.

If we have been unable to deliver any statements or other communications or these have been returned, we may stop attempting to communicate with you until we receive accurate contact information.

We are not responsible for any failure to receive any communication (including a statement) if we send it to the address you gave us or if we do not send the communication because previous communications have been undeliverable.

If you have more than one Account, you need to notify us separately for each Account.

We may update your contact details if we receive information that they have changed or are incorrect.

Card Benefits, additional services and benefits and other products

For all Cards other than the Basic Card, we may make Card Benefits available to you, including additional services or discretionary benefits associated with your Account and we will communicate with you in relation to these services and benefits. Examples of Card Benefits may include discretionary insurance benefits, assistance services, rewards programs, free Supplementary Cards and merchant offers. The Basic Card does not include Card Benefits. These may be provided under separate contractual agreements and we may change these services or benefits (See 'Changing the Agreement'). We may receive compensation from additional service providers and our compensation may vary by provider and product.

	We will provide details of these additional services and benefits when you apply for your Card and in other documentation we send to you, such as in welcome packs and communications about your benefits. We or our affiliate group companies may also tell you about other insurance and non-insurance products or services that we think may be of interest to you, but are separate to your Account, in accordance with your marketing preferences. We or our group companies may act on behalf of a provider of any of these products. The products are not sold by us on our behalf and we will not be acting as an agent for you (although they may be sold by our group companies). These are not compulsory products. We or our group companies may receive commission for selling any of these services, benefits or products to you. We or our group companies may also get additional commission when Amex Assurance Company or another group company is the insurer or reinsurer. Commission may influence what products and providers we or our group companies tell you about. If products or services carry a separate fee, this may be charged to your Account. Services and benefits that are provided by third parties are subject to the terms and conditions set by the third party and any dispute must be settled directly with the third party unless you have a legal claim against us.
Contactless payments	Cards issued on your Account may be equipped to enable contactless payments. Contactless payments enable you to make Transactions simply by holding your Card against a Card reader without having the Card swiped or imprinted. We may deactivate contactless payments at any time.
Assigning the Agreement	We may sell, transfer or assign this Agreement and your Account. We may do so at any time without notifying you, unless we are required to notify you by law. You may not sell, assign or transfer your Account or any of your obligations under this Agreement.
Set off	We may, at any time, as a continuous right, without notice or demand, set off against any credit on your Account any amount due by you to us on any other Account (in whatever currency) you have with us, until your liability for the amount owed is fully satisfied and discharged.
Complaints about us	If you have a complaint about your Account or the service you have received, please contact Executive Customer Relations Department at American Express, Department 333, Amex House, Edward Street, Brighton, East Sussex BN88 1AH. If you are unable to resolve your complaint with us and have received a final response from us confirming this and you are not a business customer, you have a right to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service, South Quay Plaza, 183 Marsh Wall, London E14 9SR. If you are a business customer you may have a right to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service We are authorised and regulated to provide payment services by the Financial Conduct Authority authorisation number: 415532.
Claims against merchants	If you dispute a Transaction with a merchant, we may credit the Account for all or part of the disputed Transaction. If we do so, whether we were legally required to make the refund or not, you and any Supplementary Cardmembers agree that you are automatically deemed to assign and transfer to us all rights and claims (excluding tort claims, such as negligence) against the merchant. You agree that you will not pursue any claim against the merchant for the credited amount, and you must cooperate with us if we decide to do so.
We do not waive our rights	We may choose to delay enforcing or to not exercise rights under this Agreement. If we do this, we do not waive our rights to exercise or enforce them on any other occasion.
Language and Governing law	This Agreement and all communications between us concerning this Agreement shall be in English. This Agreement and dealings between us before you enter into the Agreement are governed by the non-exclusive laws of England and the courts of England shall have non-exclusive jurisdiction over us and you.
Taxes, duties and exchange control	You must pay any government tax, duty or other amount imposed by law in any country in respect of the Card, any Transaction on your Account or any use of the Account by you or any Supplementary Cardmember.

prevent the event happening.

American Express® Card Benefits

Membership Rewards® Terms and Conditions

Introduction

What is this document? These Terms and Conditions govern the Membership Rewards programme (Programme) associated with your card account (Card Account). When you sign the agreement for your Card Account, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

Enrollment and Fees

Enrollment and Fees If you have a Green Charge Card, for each year that you participate in the Programme, you will be charged an annual fee of £24 including VAT. This will be applied to your Card Account as a purchase transaction the day after you initially enrol in the Programme and on or shortly after the anniversary of that date each year. You may exit the Programme, and the agreement governed by these Terms and Conditions, at any time. Please see the What happens if you end your Card Account? section below in relation to what happens to your points when you exit the Programme.

About earning Points

How you earn Points You earn a set amount of Points for each pound of eligible spend on your Card Account. The number of Points per pound is referred to as your Earn Rate and will be shown on your Card Account statement. From time to time, we may tell you about promotional Earn Rates or permit you to earn more Points per pound for certain purchases or other forms of promotion relating to the earning of Points. We may contact you about this to ensure that you can benefit from the Programme (as explained in the 'About additional benefits and other products' section of the agreement for your Card Account).

We will maintain a Points Account for you. Points are earned on every full pound spent in each purchase and will be added to your Points Account. We will tell you the balance in your Points Account on your Card Account statement.

The value of each purchase will be rounded down to the nearest pound before Points are calculated.

Supplementary Cards issued on your Card Account will also earn Points.

Linked Cards If you have more than one Card (as the main Cardholder) eligible to be enrolled in the Programme, you can ask that they are 'linked' in order that Points earned on all your Cards will go into the same Points Account (Linked Cards) provided that they are billed in the same currency.

We reserve the right to de-link your Cards at any time and we will tell you before we do.

Which Card Account balances do not earn Points? No Points will be earned on:

- interest, fees (including default fees), balance transfers, cash advances (including transactions treated as cash), loading of pre paid cards, American Express Travellers Cheque purchases or foreign exchange transactions; and
- any amounts that are subsequently credited to your Card Account by way of refunds or other types of credits.

Transferring Points to Point Transfer Programmes	You can opt for some or all of your Points to be added to a separate account with an airline or hotel loyalty programme (called a Point Transfer Programme). You can ask us to transfer Points to your Point Transfer Programme on our website or by contacting Customer Services. To be able to do this, you must first link your Points Account to the Point Transfer Programme account in your name. We will tell you how to do this when you contact us, or you can do it online via our website. Visit our website at membershiprewards.co.uk/travel for more information on transferring Points to Point Transfer Programmes.
Redeeming Points for credit	You can redeem Points for a credit to your Card Account. A Points conversion rate will apply which we will tell you when you contact us to arrange the redemption or you can find it on our website. The credit will appear on your Card Account approximately three days after you have asked us to redeem the Points. You cannot redeem Points for credit if you already have a credit balance on your Card Account or if you are late in making payment on your Card Account. If you redeem Points for credit, you must still pay the amount due on your statement.
TripFlex rewards	The TripFlex rewards option allows you to redeem Points towards Qualified Travel Purchases you have made on your Card Account. A Qualified Travel Purchase is a purchase made with a travel retailer we have designated as a qualifying retailer (such as certain airlines, hotels, car rental companies, cruise lines, travel agencies, tour operators or online travel websites). You can find more details of the TripFlex rewards programme and additional Terms and Conditions which apply on our website. You can redeem Points against the amount on your Card Account, including related taxes, booking fees, airport fees and insurance premiums. You can redeem a minimum of 1,000 Points against some or all of a Qualified Travel Purchase up to three months after making the purchase. Please see the Terms and Conditions of any card travel insurance benefits for full details.
Concierge bookings	You can redeem Points for concierge services through American Express Concierge if your Card allows this service. All concierge bookings are subject to availability.
Pay with Points	You may be able to use your Points to make purchases at certain retailers listed on our website. You need to indicate at the time of purchase that you wish to pay with Points. The purchase may initially be charged to your Card Account as a normal purchase. If so, we will then debit the Points from your Points Account and credit your Card Account with the corresponding amount. Credits to your Card Account may not be made and appear in the same statement period as the original purchase. If the Points redeemed do not cover the entire amount of the purchase, the balance of the purchase price will remain on your Card Account. Any refunds for purchases made using Pay with Points will be subject to the retailer's own refund policies.
When you might lose Points you have earned
Losing your Points	If you miss a monthly payment on your Card Account, the Points that you have earned in the previous month will be forfeited and taken away from the balance of your Points Account (this may result in a negative Points balance). You will start earning Points again from each statement date but they will continue to be forfeited whenever the relevant monthly payment is not made by the Payment Due Date.

What happens if you end your Card Account?	If you end your Card Account agreement and there are no other Linked Cards on your Points Account, or if you end these Terms and Conditions, you will have 30 days from the date you request this to redeem your Points. You can also transfer them to another Points Account, including transferring to a Points Account held by someone else (for a fee that we will inform you of at the time). If you do not transfer or redeem your Points within 30 days, they will be forfeited. If you end your Card Account and leave at least one other Linked Card in the Programme open, you will continue to earn Points in your Points Account with those Linked Cards.

What happens if we cancel or end your Card Account?	If we cancel or end your Card Account in accordance with the Card Account agreement, you will lose the Points that you have earned but not yet redeemed, unless you have another Linked Card in the Programme.
